

WORKSHOP ON OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH: SCHEDULED WASTE (HAZARDOUS WASTE) MANAGEMENT

OBJECTIVE

The workshop will provide knowledge and understanding on the types and definition of scheduled waste and its legal requirements in Malaysia. It will cover the scheduled waste management and its disposal policies and procedures, environmental impacts, health effects due to exposure to scheduled waste and the concept of waste minimization.

PROGRAMME

- 8.30am Registration of Participants
- 9.00am
 - Introduction to Scheduled Waste and Malaysia's Legal Requirements
 - Scheduled Waste and Environmental Health Safety Impacts
 - Scheduled Waste Identification and Notification
 - Scheduled Waste Inventory Management
- 1.00pm Lunch
- 2.00pm
 - Disposal, Treatment and Recovery of Scheduled Waste
 - External Disposal of Scheduled Waste
 - Scheduled Waste Emergency Handling
 - Overview of Waste Minimization
- 5.00pm Question and Answer Session
- End of Workshop

WHEN

16 July 2019
9am - 5pm

WHERE

MREPC Seminar Hall
Unit 36-01, Level 36,
West Wing, Q Sentral,
50470, Kuala Lumpur

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Business owners, factory operators, health & safety personnel, operation and production managers, human resource managers and other related personnel in the Malaysian rubber products industry

THE TRAINER

Mr. T. Selva is currently a resource consultant to MRS Training, an excellent and accomplished auditor, practitioner, senior consultant and trainer specialising in Health, Safety & Environment (HSE). Along with 30 years of experience and qualifications in Applied Chemistry, Chemical Engineering and HSE and Master of Science in Safety Engineering, he is able to provide related training and consultancy services to local and international companies.

HOW TO REGISTER

Register online at www.mrepc.com

REGISTRATION FEE

RM 60 nett per participant. Open to rubber related government agencies, associations and rubber product companies registered with MREPC